

Page-to-form sample

This sample shows how to convert a page to a reusable form that can be placed multiple times on other pages scaling, rotating, anchoring and aligning it.

On this page you can see some of the above-mentioned transformations:

1. anchored to the center of the page, rotated by 45 degrees counterclockwise, 300 point wide (preserved proportions);
2. anchored to the bottom-left corner of the page, 300 point high (preserved proportions);
3. anchored to the bottom-right corner of the page, 80 point wide and 200 point high (altered proportions).

While at Natural Tunnel...
Drop by the visitor center and gift shop and see exhibits on the geological railroad and cultural history of the park.
The park also offers hiking, camping, picnicking, a swimming complex with concessions and an outdoor amphitheater. The Core Ridge Center offers environmental education and conference meeting facilities with overnight group lodging available.
Be sure to check park bulletin boards for special events at the amphitheater or conference center.
The Wilderness Road Blockhouse a recreated historical structure displays exhibits interpreting frontier life when Daniel Boone and the early settlers were blading and traveling the Wilderness Road. Visitors today can relive the footsteps of Boone. Wilderness Trail, a self-guided driving tour stretching from Kingsport, Tenn. to Cumberland Station Va. Along the route visitors can visit Martin's State Park in Lee County Va.
Other interesting regional attractions include the Southwest Virginia Museum, the John Fox Museum, the June Miller House and Harry Meador Coal Mine. The Trail on the Lonesome Pine - All of these attractions are 20 minutes from the park. In Big Stone Gap The Jefferson National Forest to the north of the park offers a variety of camping and hiking opportunities.

Campground rules
Camping is allowed only in designated campgrounds and only after following the proper check-in procedure. The state park camping must be completed by a member of the camping party 18 years of age or older. This person accepts responsibility for the remainder of the camping party.
Campsites are designed to be used by a maximum of six people or one family.
Campsites are permitted in all state parks. They must be kept at all times in an enclosed area or on leash no longer than six feet. No pets are permitted in bathing areas or other facilities.
One motor vehicle in addition to the camping unit is permitted per site. Only the camping unit listed on the camping application is extended or seasonal.
State park campgrounds are intended for seasonal traveling public and not for extended or seasonal camping. The maximum camping stay per park is 14 days in any 30 day period.
Campsites have posted campground quiet hours. Campers are expected to adhere to these posted hours.
Camping is permitted in designated areas only.
Landfill sites are to be used only for washing clothes.
Campsites at the time of registration must inform the park staff of the names of visitors expected to arrive at the campsite. Visitors will not be admitted to the public use or display of alcoholic beverages is prohibited. Public intoxication and disorderly conduct will not be tolerated.
In case of an emergency notify a park ranger or dial 911. Hospitals are in Big Stone Gap and Kingsport with ambulance service from Duffield.

Frequent visitors save money
Annual passes for parking and swimming offer the frequent visitor greater savings. Stop by the park office for details.
Virginia State Parks Reservation Center
To reserve more information on Virginia State Parks or to make a cabin or campsite reservation call 1-800-233-PAK (or in the Richmond calling area 225-2867)

Join us in the parks...
DCR offers diverse opportunities for volunteers in most state parks and natural areas throughout the state. Inquire at the park office for details.
DCR Volunteer Program

For more information, contact
Natural Tunnel State Park
Route 3, Box 230
Duffield, Virginia 24244
(278) 940-2874
You can also visit our home page at www.dcr.virginia.gov

Virginia State Parks provide of outdoor activities and programs. They are an important part of DCR's efforts to promote a strong conservation ethic. These efforts ensure that the best of Virginia's natural resources will be protected and available for future generations.

While at Natural Tunnel...
Drop by the visitor center and gift shop and see exhibits on the geological railroad and cultural history of the park.
The park also offers hiking, camping, picnicking, a swimming complex with concessions and an outdoor amphitheater. The Core Ridge Center offers environmental education and conference meeting facilities with overnight group lodging available.
Be sure to check park bulletin boards for special events at the amphitheater or conference center.
The Wilderness Road Blockhouse a recreated historical structure displays exhibits interpreting frontier life when Daniel Boone and the early settlers were blading and traveling the Wilderness Road. Visitors today can relive the footsteps of Boone. Wilderness Trail, a self-guided driving tour stretching from Kingsport, Tenn. to Cumberland Station Va. Along the route visitors can visit Martin's State Park in Lee County Va.
Other interesting regional attractions include the Southwest Virginia Museum, the John Fox Museum, the June Miller House and Harry Meador Coal Mine. The Trail on the Lonesome Pine - All of these attractions are 20 minutes from the park. In Big Stone Gap The Jefferson National Forest to the north of the park offers a variety of camping and hiking opportunities.

Frequent visitors save money
Annual passes for parking and swimming offer the frequent visitor greater savings. Stop by the park office for details.
Virginia State Parks Reservation Center
To reserve more information on Virginia State Parks or to make a cabin or campsite reservation call 1-800-233-PAK (or in the Richmond calling area 225-2867)

Join us in the parks...
DCR offers diverse opportunities for volunteers in most state parks and natural areas throughout the state. Inquire at the park office for details.
DCR Volunteer Program

